Article 2 Application

Pursuant to Article 3 and paragraphs 2 and 3 of Article 14 of the Agreement, the Contracting Parties hereby agree to apply the provisions of this Protocol to the establishment of an ASEAN Scheme of Compulsory Motor Vehicle Insurance to enable Transit Transport Operators and Road Transit Transport Vehicles from each of the Contracting Parties to be adequately insured against death or bodily injuries and/ or property damages arising from road traffic accidents in the territories of the other Contracting Parties.

Article 3 Compulsory Motor Vehicle Insurance Coverage

The ASEAN Scheme of Compulsory Motor Vehicle Insurance as established by this Protocol shall provide, at least, the minimum requirements prescribed by the laws and regulations governing compulsory motor vehicle insurance in force in the country or countries of transit and of final destination.

Article 4 Obligations of the Contracting Parties

In addition to the responsibilities assumed under other provisions of this Protocol, the Contracting Parties shall endeavour to take all necessary measures for the implementation of this Protocol and, in particular:

- a. Undertake to require the insurance company or companies established in their territories providing compulsory motor vehicle insurance to adopt the Blue Card scheme as described in this Protocol;
- b. Undertake to enact necessary domestic laws and regulations that may be required for the implementation of this Protocol;

- c. Undertake to ensure that its National Bureau has sufficient funds to fulfil its obligations under Article 10 of this Protocol.

Article 5
Obligation to have a Blue Card

Road Transit Transport Vehicles shall have a valid Blue Card which shall be presented upon request.

Article 6
Issuance of the Blue Card

The Blue Card shall be issued by the National Bureau of each of the Contracting Parties, in accordance with Article 10 of this Protocol.

Article 7
Coverage and Validity of Blue Card

1. During the period of its validity, the Blue Card shall be proof of existence of an insurance policy for the compulsory motor vehicle insurance described in Article 3 of this Protocol.
2. The Blue Card shall be valid for a specific period of time not to exceed one calendar year, irrespective of the number of transit transport journeys to be made.
3. The Blue Card shall be valid for one specific Road Transit Transport Vehicle and shall in no case be transferable.

Article 8
Content and Form of the Blue Card

1. The Blue Card shall, inter alia, include the following particulars:
 - a. Name and address of the issuing National Bureau;
 - b. Country(ies) in which the Insurance Policy is effective;
 - c. Name(s) and address(es) of the Insurer(s);
 - d. Identification of the road transit transport vehicle;
 - e. Name and address of the Policy Holder;
 - f. Date of issue and date of expiry of the card;
 - g. Name(s) and address(es) of the National Bureau in each Contracting Party;
 - h. Number(s) of the insurance policy(ies);

- i. Serial number of the card; and
 - j. Signature and stamp of the issuing National Bureau.
2. The form, in terms of size and shape, of the Blue Card shall be decided upon by the Council of Bureaux. It shall be printed in the English language.

Article 9
Establishment of National Bureau

1. The Contracting Parties shall establish National Bureaux whose function is prescribed in Article 10 of this Protocol.
2. The National Bureau shall be composed of licensed insurer(s) providing compulsory motor vehicle insurance.

Article 10
Functions of the National Bureau

The National Bureau shall undertake to fulfil the following functions:

- a) Issue the Blue Card to its own country's Transit Transport Operators after having verified that the Transit Transport Operator has in place a motor insurance policy which meets the country's compulsory motor insurance requirements;
- b) Sell the country's motor policies which provides the minimum compulsory insurance to other country's Transit Transport Operators entering the country;
- c) Stamp on the Blue Card after verifying that the other country's Transit Transport Operator has purchased the requisite motor insurance policy which meets with its country's compulsory motor requirements.
- d) Verify, whenever informed of a road accident caused in its territory by the holder of the Blue Card, the circumstances of the accident and on the basis, of its findings, take any action it deems necessary. It shall, in any event, advise the insurer concerned of any claims that it is handling on the latter's behalf;
- e) Obtain prior authorisation from the insurer concerned before settling any claims;
- f) Seek reimbursement from the insurer concerned on the amount of claims settled.

Article 11
Establishment of a Council of Bureaux

A Council of Bureaux shall be established to coordinate and supervise the legal, technical, administrative and financial operations of the National Bureaux of all the Contracting Parties.

Article 12
Composition and Meetings of the Council of Bureaux

1. The Council of Bureaux shall consist of one representative from each National Bureau and a representative of the Transit Transport Coordinating Board established pursuant to Article 29.2 of the Agreement.
2. The Council of Bureaux shall elect its Chairman and its Vice-Chairman from among its members for a fixed term and according to the rotation principle.
3. The Council of Bureaux shall meet once a year. Additional meetings may be held at the request of any one of the National Bureaux.

Article 13
Functions of the Council of Bureaux

The Council of Bureaux shall have the following functions :

- a. Determine and adopt the form and content of the Blue Card;
- b. Establish its annual budget and fix the annual contributions to be paid by each National Bureau;
- c. Coordinate the operations of all the National Bureaux. To this end, the Council shall prepare an Inter-Bureaux Agreement which shall be signed by all the National Bureaux and which the Council alone may amend;
- d. Make recommendations to the relevant authorities, with a view to improving the ASEAN Scheme of Compulsory Motor Vehicle Insurance and strengthening road traffic accident prevention, where necessary, through amendments to the laws and regulations in force in the Contracting Parties;
- e. Settle disputes between any two or more National Bureaux relating to the application or interpretation of the provisions of this Protocol; and
- f. Present a report annually to the ASEAN Insurance Regulators Meeting.

Article 14
Institutional Arrangements

1. The ASEAN Insurance Regulators Meeting shall be responsible for reviewing, coordinating and supervising all aspects relating to the effective implementation of this Protocol.
2. The ASEAN Secretariat shall submit regular reports of the progress of implementation of this Protocol to the Transit Transport Coordinating Board established pursuant to Article 29.2 of the Agreement.
3. The ASEAN Secretariat shall provide the necessary technical support and assistance to the ASEAN Insurance Regulators Meeting and other related ASEAN bodies in their functions and responsibilities under this Protocol.

Article 15
Final Provisions

1. This Protocol shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of ASEAN who shall promptly furnish a certified copy thereof to each Contracting Party.
2. This Protocol shall form an integral part of the Agreement.
3. This Protocol is subject to ratification or acceptance by the Contracting Parties. The Instrument of Ratification or Acceptance shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of ASEAN who shall promptly inform each Contracting Party of such deposit.
4. This Protocol shall enter into force upon the deposit of Instruments of Ratification or Acceptance by all Contracting Parties with the Secretary-General of ASEAN. Contracting Parties which are unable to comply with the Protocol shall be granted a grace period of two years from the date of signing of the Protocol to work towards compliance.
5. Any amendment to the provisions of this Protocol and its Annexes shall be effected by consent of all the Contracting Parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorised to sign by their respective Governments, have signed Protocol 5 – ASEAN Scheme of Compulsory Motor Vehicle Insurance.

DONE at Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia on the 8th day of April 2001, in a single copy in the English language.
